DALLAS GIANTS HERE TOMORROW FOR 3 GAMES

GASSERS WILL MEET TEXAS LEAGUERS ON LOCAL LOT AT 4 O'CLOCK FRIDAY; HAVE GOOD CLUB

The Dallas Giants, third place winners in the Texas League race, will be here tomorrow for a three-game series with the Amarillo Gassers Friday, Saturday and Sunday, according to arrangements completed yesterday by Rankin Johnson and the management of the Dallas club.

This series is expected to be the banner baseball event of the season for Amarillo and Panhandle fans for it is something unusual for a class D club to engage in battle with a Class A aggregation. When it became known yesterday that arrangements had been made for the series with the Giants baseball at once became the topic of conversation throughout the city and it is the belief of fans here that the Gassers, pennant winners of the West Texas League, will give the Dallas club a run for their money, if not win the series.

Dallas is to bring its regular club twelve men to be here, the wire from the management said yesterday, while Amarillo will meet the Giants with a strong club. Fitzgerald and Comstock of the Gasser outfit have joined the big show and Antwerp has gone to the east but the Gassers will have a strong outfield to go up against the Dallas club, Rankin Johnson said. Ross Johnson, with the Amarillo Gray last season and with the Gassers the first half, will play first while it is probable that Brown of Lubbock, Lanford of Lubbock and Tucker of Clovis, will constitute the outfield.

The series is being arranged by Rankin Johnson for the Gassers and all proceeds will go to the players of the two clubs, outside of park rental and such other incidental expenses.

Dallas has one of the best clubs of the Southwest, having won third places in the Texas League and materially strengthened its line-up before the close of the Texas League season.

Fans of Amarillo and the Panhandle have the first opportunity in years to see a Class A club perform on the local lot, and there is much speculation as to how the Gassers will show up against such an outfit.

The Friday and Saturday games will be played at 4 o'clock and Sunday's game will start at 3.

YANKS WIN IN NINTH; BROWNS LOSE TO SOLONS

By Associated Press

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—The New York Yanks continued their march toward the American League championship here today, winning the second straight from the Tigers 6 to 5. The winning run came in the ninth inning when Meusek drove the left field wall for a home run. The victory put the Yankees three and one-half games ahead of the Browns.

Babe Ruth's best effort of the day was a single. Ehmke passed him once and another time he was called out on strikes in the 4th inning. Blue and Jones singled for Detroit and Veach was passed, filling the bases. Fothergill's triple sent in three runs and Cutshaw sacrificed, scoring Fothergill.

The Yankees evened up the count in their half of the fifth when Scott doubled. Shawkey was hit by a pitched ball and Ruth was passed. All three came in on Pipp's double and the latter scored on Meusek's hit.

A triple by Scott, followed by Shawkey's single put New York in the lead in the sixth and the visitors threatened again in the seventh when Schang tripped with two down. Scott's fly to Cobb, however, ended the inning.

It was tied up in the eighth, Detroit scoring one run on Jones' single and Veach's double.

WELCOMES UPWARD TREND, THOUGH IT'S ONLY A NOTCH, AFTER YEARS AT BOTTOM

CONNIE MACK

By Billy Evans.

"Seventh place will make as big a hit with me in 1922 as the winning of pennants did not so many years ago," Connie Mack said to me recently, when I came to Philadelphia to umpire a series between Boston and the Athletics.

He is also on the seventh place hinged.

I had just come over from New York, from officiating at the series between the Yankees and St. Louis—a hectic struggle for first place.

St. Louis invaded New York with a half game lead. By winning the first game it increased this to a game and a half. Then the Yankees won the next three, leaving New York in front by a game and a half.

The final game went 11 innings.

Smiling but Serious.

When I came out to start the first game between Boston and the Athletics, Mack remarked to me:

"Well, you're in for another crucial series."

RANGERS USED TO BREAK SPIRIT OF MINERS, IS CHARGE

By Associated Press

FRUITLAND, Sept. 20.—Adjutant General Barton is on his way here, to investigate charges made by John Wilkinson, district mine worker president, that Rangers are being used to coerce the Thurber coal field strikers. Wilkinson today said he was told by the office of the governor late Tuesday.

Up to 9:30 a. m. Wednesday Wilkinson had received no reply from Attorney General Daugherty regarding his wire to that official Tuesday night. He expects, however, to hear from Daugherty before leaving for Muskogee Wednesday night, he said. He is also expecting to hear from the mine workers' representative at Thurber some time during the day.

PLANS MADE FOR PLAINVIEW FAIR

Special to The News.

PLAINVIEW, Sept. 20.—The committee in charge of the arrangements for holding the Farmers and Merchants Exposition, which will be held in Plainview Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 25, 26 and 27, met to hear reports of progress being made.

The exposition will include a display of agricultural products, style show, automobile show, hog show and other attractions.

Showers shower under the auspices of the national record association of these two popular breeds of swine. About $1,200 in cash prizes will be distributed in the hog show. The official ribbons for the Poland China division have been received and are being shown in a show window of Damon-Ward Co.'s store.

H. H. Hiblum has charge of the Swine show and reported that an exceptionally good exhibition may be expected. The show will be staged under the trees on the lots across the street east of the auditorium, where pens will be built.

Miss Creola Hobbs will have charge of the style show, and she is thoroughly competent to make it a success. The program will be given one night of the fair at the city auditorium and will be free. The local merchants will exhibit on live models on the stage the latest styles in women's and children's clothing and millinery. The latest in men's wearables will also be shown.

HUNDREDS HEAR COOK TELL ABOUT POLE TRIP

lost in an ill-fated expediton of snow and ice, no vegetation, no life, no passing thing save themselves and their dogs, part of which they were finally forced to eat.

The ice was drifting when they started back and having no point to hitch their compass indications to they wandered far from the shore of the sea until they had eaten food supplies. Their food was consumed, and they had been living on but three-quarter rations. Their stomachs shrunk, in their skins shrivelled, and they were about to give up the ghost when they came to land and killed a bear.

Leaving part of this bear meat in a 12-foot canvas boat and abandoning their dogs they put out to open sea and rowed, said Dr. Cook, for 1600 miles, and were again starving when they sighted land and found on it musk oxen. Being practically without ammunition they "nailed 38 head of these oxen," and harpooning into the ground they passed the winter.

When summer came again, Dr. Cook related they had located themselves, and harnessing themselves to their seals loaded with musk ox meat they started a 500-mile journey to a Greenland settlement. They expected to make 10 miles a day, but made only 15 miles when their food again gave out.

They found a bear's tracks and followed them for several days to the bear himself, which with one of the four remaining cartridges one of the Eskimos shot. With this food they tramped till they got within 20 miles of the settlement, but open water halted them. They were again about to starve, the explorer said, when they came to a seal which the father of one of the Eskimos had buried while out searching for his lost son.

With this seal meat for food they scurried the open water for a distance of 150 miles and came at last to the settlement, but not before they came to the point of eating their own boot tops mixed with milk.

The party had now been out 14 months, Dr. Cook said. He later went on to a Danish settlement, from there to Europe, and thence to the United States.

GAINEVILLE, Texas, Sept. 20.—Harold G. Young, 49, Wichita Falls, and his brother, Eugene Young, 38, Wynnewood, Okla., were instantly killed near Gainerville, sixteen miles west of Gainesville, last night when a passenger train struck their automobile on a grade crossing.
